Food Bites

• Kildare's Irish Pub to open a 4th location in Media in mid-September at 1145 W. Baltimore Pike. Owner Dave Magrogan grew up in Brookhaven.

After graduating Life Chiropractic in Atlanta, he practiced in Media and Brookhaven from 1996 to 2002. He then sold his practices to create Kildare's Irish Pub offering authentic Irish experience in food, service, and atmosphere. Other Kildare locations are at 18-22 West Gay Street, West Chester; 826 Dekalb Pike, King of Prussia; and 4417 Main Street, Manayunk. Info at 610-565-8886 or visit www.kildarespub.com.

• I reported before about Chef Joe Poon's farewell dinners before he closes his popular Asian Fusion Restaurant in Chinatown. Joe's received so many requests for reservations that he's extending his farewell dinners through August 27. The 5-course Farewell Dinners will feature his most popular recipes from his inspirational new autobiography Life is Short... Cooking is Fun. For reservations call 215-928-9333 or visit www.josephpoon.com.

• Coyote Crossing in Conshohocken & West Chester is offering complimentary dinner (dining in only) for those celebrating their birthday. Dine at Coyote Crossing within 7 days of your birthday (before or after) and receive your entree on the house. Show your driver's license and tell your server you read about this offer in City Suburban News. Must buy one entree to receive one free. Not valid with any other coupon or special offer. Base your gratuity on full value of check. Conshohocken Coyote Crossing is located at 800 Spring Mill Ave. - call 610-825-3000. West Chester Coyote Crossing is located at 102 E. Market St. (at Walnut) - call 610-429-8900. More info online at www.coyotecrossing.com.

On Stage

• Curio Theatre Company presents Macbeth at the Walnut Street theatre Studio 5 from August 24 to September 11.
